

SETANTA SPORTS

CLICHÉ BINGO

THIS SATURDAY 6TH JUNE IS OFFICIALLY A CLICHÉ FREE ZONE

If you hear one of these clichés during the match, cross it off your bingo card!

KAZAKHSTAN v ENGLAND

"A funny old game"	"At sixes and sevens"	"At the end of the day"	"Early doors"	"End-to-end stuff"
"For a big lad he's good with his feet"	"Game of two halves"	"Giving 100%"	"He's gone down a little easily there"	"If a Brazilian had done that, we'd all be raving about it"
"It's handbags"	"No easy games in international football"	Any mention of '1966' in an England game commentary	"Over the moon"	"Potential banana skin"
"Setting out their stall"	"Sick as a parrot"	"That's bread and butter/food & drink"	"The crowd is worth a goal start"	"This free-kick is in 'Beckham' range"
"This game needs a goal"	"Typical forward's tackle"	"On paper..."	Any mention of David Beckham's goal Vs Greece	Reference to Gerrard & Lampard not being able to play together

FOLLOW THE CLICHÉ COUNTER LIVE ON WWW.SETANTA.COM